The Mountain Pact Thanks Secretary Haaland for Visiting the Potential Baaj Nwaavjo I'tah Kukveni Grand Canyon National Monument

DURANGO, CO - In response to Secretary of the Interior Deb Haaland and Representative Raúl Grijalva holding a community meeting to hear from Tribal leaders, elected officials, and community members about their vision for management of public lands in the greater Grand Canyon landscape, The Mountain Pact, an organization that works with local elected officials in nearly 100 communities across the Western U.S., released the below statement:

"We are very grateful to Secretary Haaland for visiting Arizona to learn more about the Tribal push for President Biden to designate Baaj Nwaavjo I'tah Kukveni Grand Canyon National Monument. We appreciate that she has taken time and interest to learn directly from Tribal leaders, elected officials, and community members on their request for President Biden to use his authority under the Antiquities Act to protect this culturally significant landscape as a national monument." - Anna Peterson, Executive Director of The Mountain Pact.

###

Founded in 2014, The Mountain Pact mobilizes local elected officials in over 100 Western mountain communities with outdoor recreation based economies to speak with a collective voice on federal climate, public lands, and outdoor recreation policy.

More Information:

National monuments and their designations are incredibly bi-partisan. Congress passed the Antiquities Act in 1906 and since then, 18 presidents - nine Democratic and nine Republican - have established or expanded 161 national monuments.
